

Darlene Barbusch

Paralegal

Darlene concentrates on intellectual property and general corporate matters. Her intellectual property experience includes conducting preliminary screening searches, reviewing and analyzing full trade and service mark availability searches, preparing and filing trademark, service mark and copyright applications in the U.S. and foreign jurisdictions, and drafting responses to official actions. She has extensive experience effecting assignment recordation relating to the transfer of ownership rights in registered intellectual property assets held throughout the world. Darlene also oversees the firm's intellectual property docketing department.

Darlene's corporate experience includes all aspects of formation, maintenance and dissolution of corporations, limited partnerships and limited liability companies, including the preparation of routine and transaction specific resolutions, maintenance of official corporate records books and maintenance of the firm's corporate records database. She also has experience in the preparation, searching and filing of financing statements under the Uniform Commercial Code.

Darlene attended Indiana University Northwest.
