

Adam Oyebanji on "Early Case Assessment"

Law Bulletin's 2010 Annual Discovery and E-Discovery Conference
June 8, 2010

Adam Oyebanji joins a faculty of top local litigators, global consultants, corporate counsel, and government officials for Law Bulletin's 2010 Annual Discovery & E-Discovery Conference.

Topics of this year's conference include:

- Discovery: Cooperation and Litigation Holds
- E-Discovery 101 and E-Discovery in the Small Case
- The Seventh Circuit E-Discovery Pilot Program
- E-Discovery: Early Case Assessment
- Discovery Sanctions
- E-Discovery: Standards of Admissibility
- E-Discovery: Third Party Data, Social Media and Cloud Computing

Conference attendees will earn 6.5 MCLE hours, including 1 hour of PMCLE (ethics).

For more information or to register for this conference, please click here.

Attorneys Speaking

- Adam Oyebanji

Related Practices

- Litigation