

Trademark Prosecution, Policing and Licensing: Wine & Spirits

Ongoing representation of a prominent wine and spirits manufacturer and distributor in connection with the prosecution, maintenance, and licensing of its worldwide trademark portfolio, which work has involved preparing cease-and-desist letters to infringing entities and initiating litigation to the extent necessary to protect the client's intellectual property rights.

Related Practices

- Intellectual Property