Fiduciary Duties: Acting in the Best Interest of Your Shareholders

Individual directors often worry about the interests of various stakeholders when making critical decisions that may affect your organization's future. Understanding the key considerations underlying the decision making process and the legal ramifications of that ultimate decision to both individual directors and the full board can be difficult. Our director training presentation titled "Fiduciary Duties: Acting in the Best Interest of Your Shareholders" helps distill the process and includes the following topics:

- Guiding Principles
- Primary Duties
- Standards of Review
- Duty of Care
- Duty of Loyalty
- Major Business Decisions

Contact us to develop a training program and schedule tailored to the specific needs of your board of directors.
