

Barack Ferrazzano Partners Recognized as Crain's 2023 Notable Litigators and Trial Attorneys

3.13.2023 | FIRM NEWS

BFKN Press Release

Barack Ferrazzano is pleased to announce Crain's Chicago – a top source of news, analysis and information on business in metropolitan Chicago for decision-makers in the private and public sectors – has recognized partners Matthew A. Bills and Maile Hitomi Solís as 2023 Notable Litigators and Trial Attorneys.

This recognition is well deserved and a testament to Matt and Maile's leadership within the firm and the first class service they provide to our clients in Chicago and around the world. – Roger H. Stetson, BFKN's Co-Managing Partner

Matt is co-chair of the firm's Litigation Group. He has significant, first-chair trial experience in a wide variety of business disputes. He represents clients in matters involving breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, non-competes, and post-closing disputes. Matt also is Chair of the firm's Insurance Coverage Group and regularly handles high-stakes insurance coverage matters for policyholders.

Maile is co-chair of the firm's Litigation Group and DEI Committee. Maile has over two decades of experience litigating and counseling clients in all manner of commercial litigation throughout the country, including in contract disputes, trademark, copyright infringement and biometric information privacy suits, consumer class actions and employment and customer discrimination litigation.
